Fun with lots of physical work

Get your work done, show up and be kind and you have no issues! Stay put of the drama...as with any place there is drama between housekeepers and lots of it but if you dont partake you never have any issues with people. Its a fun place to be if you can get along with people.

Fun place to work

The staff and guests are caring and management is always there to help if you need anything. If you like a fun place to work with good benefits this is the place for you.

Poor Management

Great benefits if you don't mind working with his school management who favors friends over good workers. They don't listen to complaints and just brush them under the rug. If you can work in this type of work place then maybe the benefits will out weigh the cons.
